

ANNUAL MEETING

The Northwest Florida Collaborative Law Group is hosting an Annual Meeting

FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 2017

Location: Private Dining Room at Bonefish Grill
641 W. 23rd Street, Panama City

Time: 5:30 p.m.

Cost: $35 per person plus tax and gratuities includes 4-course dinner and non-alcoholic beverages;
cash bar available

**Pre-registration is required due to limited space****

To attend, contact: Susan V. Carroll, Esq.
svcarroll@CarrollLawOnline.com
(850) 785-9005 or
Suzanne Clark, LCSW
nwflcares@gmail.com
(850) 866-5180

This meeting is open to all attorneys, financial professionals, and licensed mental health professionals interested in collaborative law, as well as Northwest Florida Collaborative Law Group members.

Northwest Florida
Collaborative Law Group

GROW YOUR COLLABORATIVE
PRACTICE: DOING
WELL BY DOING GOOD

Keynote Speaker:

Adam B. Cordover, Esq. will be presenting a 1-hour workshop titled Growing Your Collaborative Practice: Doing Well By Doing Good

Workshop Description: Growing Your Collaborative Practice is a highly interactive workshop that will draw upon the collective wisdom of the Northwest Florida Collaborative Law Group, along with research and the experience of a leading collaborative attorney, to:

- Identify challenges, both real and perceived, to the spread of collaborative practice;
- Explore options to meet and overcome those challenges; and
- Discuss methods that have led to the growth of collaborative practices and communities around the U.S. and Canada.